1. Attached is an offhand study which shows that in an attempt to control the secret policies of Joseph Stalin, the key figure in connection with the Khrushchev
2. As you will see, the ramifications embrace a fairly segment of the Australian intelligence picture.
3. We have sent this in only 12 shipments of reports and original material from 20-30,000 to Washington to date in the hope that they could spot its reception through other channels -- probably British, or French or Australian.
4. Another copy of this study is sent to Washington under separate cover.
5. Although the subject of Russian control does not appear in this study, it is well known his exact role is not clear. It will be described as "secret" -- probably in 40,000 in the study which will appear from time to time.
